INFORMATION AND PILGRIM WELCOMING CENTER

San Sebastian de Garabandal

Highlander village in northern Spain, in the municipality of Rionansa (Cantabria), regarded internationally as a Marian Pilgrimage Center.

Thousands of Pilgrims from different parts of the world come every year to Garabandal as a place of prayer for spiritual retreat or meeting.

Religious travel agencies, include Garabandal, near Fatima and Lourdes, in the Marian pilgrimage routes.

THE PILGRIMS ASSOCIATION “VIRGIN OF MOUNT CARMEL OF GARABANDAL”, conscious of the need to have in this place, a reception center, decided to hire the old schools, with the goal of making available to the pilgrims one:

TO TAKE THIS PROJECT FORWARD NEED OF EFFORT AND COLLABORATION OF ALL

"...Come, you are blessed by my Father, for I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invite me in." (Matthew 25, 34-36)

"At that time, Maria got ready and hurried to a town in a hill country of Judea". (Luke 1, 39-40)

As children to meet a Mother, we dare to say: "On July 2, 1961, Maria began to route the village of San Sebastian de Garabandal," to announce to the world, through four girls, one
